

eucen ULLL Open Fora 2020

30 November – Closing Activity

How is the eucen ULLL Open Fora 2020 connected to the next eucen activities?

MONDAY 30 NOVEMBER 2020

12:00CET (midday) Welcome by Timo HALTTUNEN, member of the Steering Committee of eucen and University of Turku (FI)

12:10CET long presentation: Prof. Dr. Wieger Bakker, Dean, Lifelong Learning and Professor of Society Oriented Higher Education, Faculty of Law, Economics and Governance (LEG) at Utrecht University (NL)

In this session, we will discuss the forthcoming eucen 2021 conference in Utrecht, and the now open Call for Contributions to the conference topic: Learning for impact in a changing world.

What is the role of Continuing Education (CE) at universities in enabling professionals to perform in a dynamic societal context to the best of their abilities, and continue to do so throughout their careers? Wieger Bakker will take us through the Dutch landscape of higher education, and the vision of continuing education at the Utrecht University. In this session we will have a chance to get an early bird's taste on what's to come in the eucen conference 01-04 June 2021.

Prof. Dr. Eva Cendon, Chair, University Continuing Education & Teaching and Learning at FernUniversität in Hagen, Germany and Vice-President of eucen will also participate in this session and add to the discussion details on how to contribute to the deeper understanding of learning and learners, by participating in the conference. Eva Cendon will brief us about the conference Call for Contributions and its three strands:

1. Impact of Societal change on UCE
2. The future of education and modern workplace learning
3. UCE as Professional Practice within universities
